“Pride in Eastside” Because We are Eastside

Following is the winning essay, submitted by the National Honor Society, during "Pride in Eastside Week." It was chosen for this page because it represents best the theme of the 1968 EASTERNER.

There seems to be an epidemic spreading at Eastside. Like a cold, it's spreading to everyone. Like the measles, everyone is breaking out with it. Like the mumps, everyone is swelling with it. Like the seven year itch, it keeps everyone on the move. What is this thing that is causing people to stay after school and clean rooms and make signs? Why, it's pride. Everyone, well, almost everyone, seems to have some phase of it and this is only the beginning. There is more talk of later activities and fun-filled events.

Are you a victim? Check yourself. Do you attend ball games and yell? Do you participate in one or more of the active clubs in our school? Do you work hard and cooperate with your teachers? If you do, you have a case of "pride." Since this is such a widespread epidemic at Eastside, it appears that there can be no cure. Let's see if we can give it to EVERYONE! We want no cure! Long live "Pride in Eastside!"

Miss Eastside

Nancy Jean Ulm, Miss Eastside, brought a great deal of pride to Eastside, when she received first runner-up to Miss Dekalb County at the Dekalb County Fair. Singing "Impossible" and "To Dream the Impossible Dream," Nancy demonstrated her Pride in Eastside with the genuine smile and poise of a lady.

Nancy (center) rides in the Saturday parade.

The Blazettes precede the Eastside High School Matching Band in the closing parade.

The Blazers make their entrance sporting new uniforms which were purchased as a result of a fund-raising project by the Band Boosters.

INTRODUCING A MAJOR HIGHLIGHT OF THE YEAR: THE SEVENTY-FOUR PIECE
RICHMOND SENIOR HIGH ORCHESTRA CONDUCTED BY RALPH BURKHARDT

Members of the Richmond Senior High School Orchestra arrive the night before they are to give a concert at Eastside on December 15. New friends were quickly made with Eastside Chorus and Band students, with whom they were housed.

Jackie Hook demonstrates Eastside hospitality to her guests.

From "Victory at Sea" to the "Hallelujah Chorus," members of the Richmond Orchestra delightfully entertained Eastside students.

Conductor Ralph Burkhardt asks the members of the Orchestra who had been students of Eastside music teachers Richard and Paula Foster, formerly of Richmond, to stand.

Convocations

Dr. Liddle listens as his assistant reads the question of a student.

Eastsiders had a new experience in the all-day convocation. The speaker was Dr. Frank Liddle. The topic--"Sex Education." Dr. Liddle spoke to the group as a whole, to the girls individually and to the boys individually. While one group was in session, the other group was divided according to classes and these smaller groups met in discussion groups with counselors. This experience added knowledge and cleared misconceptions.

An intent audience is captivated by what Dr. Liddle has to say.

A group of Senior girls meet in discussion with Mrs. Kathryn Shultz.

Reverend Arthur Freisen delivers the message at the Christmas Convocation.

Highlights

The Eastside Concert Choir gave their annual Christmas Concert prior to the dismissal for Christmas Vacation. The program included the traditional songs of Christmas from "Joy to the World" to selections from Handel's "Messiah."

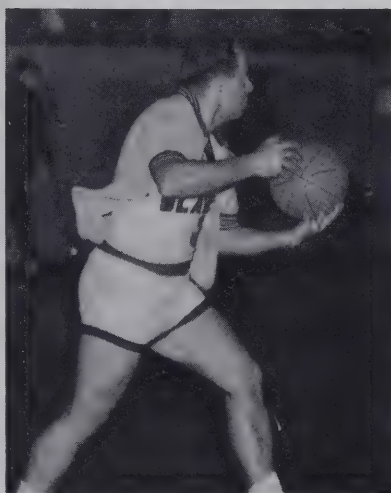

"Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire."

Members of the faculty are honored.

In raising money for additional choir robes, the Music Boosters sponsored a basketball game between the Eastside Faculty and the WOWO Air Aces on January 25. A capacity crowd viewed the antics of the Air Aces as they captured a close victory. Besides providing for a worthy cause the venture was highly entertaining and a delightful treat. Serving as the cheerleaders were Linda Long, Linda Reynolds, Carolyn Hoffer and Mary Helen Kurtz.

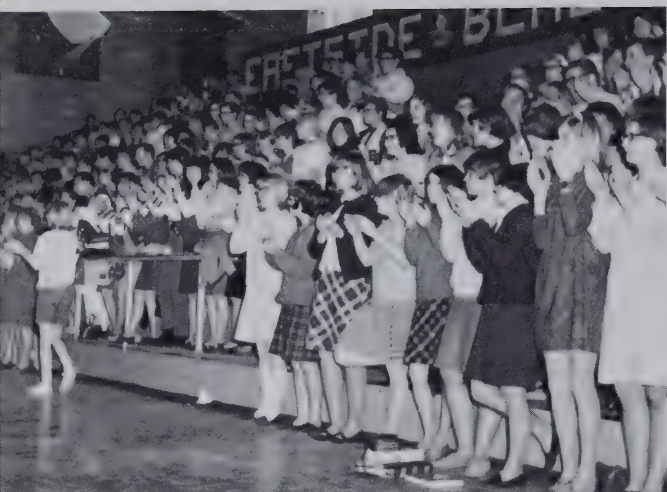

Mr. Bedwell has the ball.

Mr. Neuhouser scores with Cigna close behind.

Pep Sessions

An enthusiastic Student Body opens the 1967-1968 Basketball Season with a spirit arousing pep session.

Mr. Wilder presents a deserving team with the Spirit Stick.

"The Eastside Blazers" versus the "Albion Trojans," as portrayed by the Seniors.

Sophomores pluck the "Fremont Eagle," Mr. Reynolds

"Now let me tell you about a big team."

1968 Style

Freshmen President Hal Hansen smacks a pie into the face of cheerleader Shawn Campbell.

"No, I don't believe that Blazers are a gonna win."

"Then, I'ma gonna hafta shoot yooou!"

Mr. Wilder presents Seniors Marna Ankney and Melanie Carnahan with First Prize in the Locker Decoration Contest.

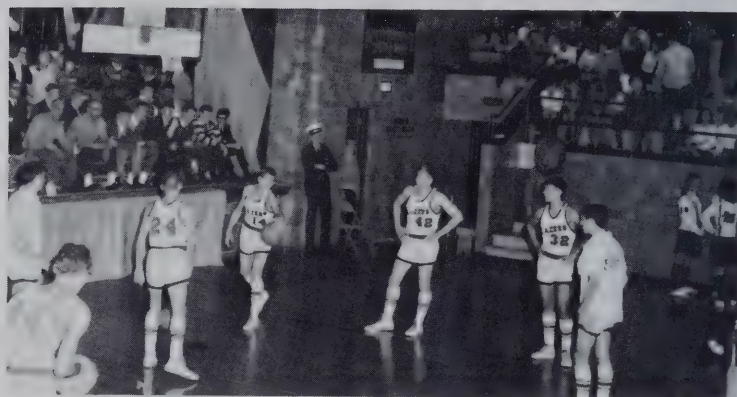

Cheerleaders sing a tribute to the Blazers.

Hoosier

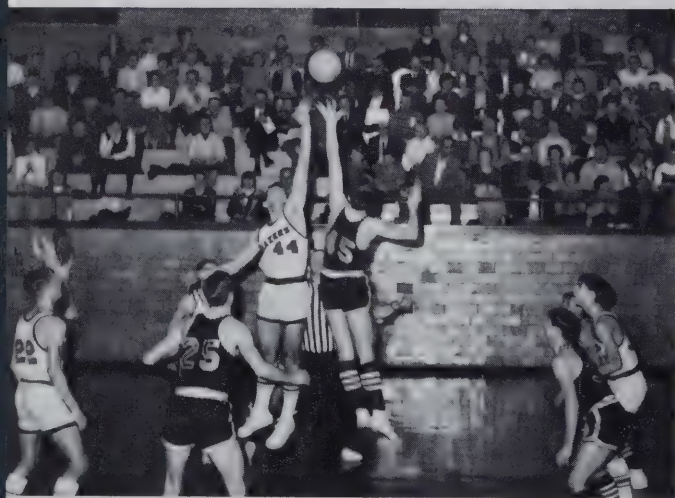

Herb Holden, Senior Center, displays his jumping ability.

The Eastside Blazers finished their season with a fair record and some hard games fought, of which many were close. One of the thrillers of the year was the Woodlan (Allen County Conference Champs) game which ended in overtime in favor of the opponents by only two points. The greatest victory was gained from Prairie Heights by over twenty points. School Spirit mounted with the season's onslaught.

The Blazers sported new uniforms.

Skip Campbell shoots a good basket for two more points.

Eastside-Bishop Dwenger Tip-off.

Hysteria

Eastside scores at the fowl line.

Players skirmish for the ball.

The Blazettes Drill Team danced to "Music to Watch Girls By," during one of the Half-Time programs.

The "Eastside Fight Song" and Senior cheerleader Shawn Campbell's last home game. Underclass members of the cheerleading squad presented their captain with a Mum corsage.

An Example of Academic Life

A sales representative demonstrates the wonders of an electronic computer to an awed bookkeeping class.

Mr. Neuhouser's Geometry class measures the distance of the school flag pole.

Danny Hughes seeks Mr. Foster's help when he has difficulty with his horn.

The people pictured on the preceding pages serve not only to guide and educate us, but to help us when we need someone to turn to. Too often we fear them as being something other than human, but if we take the time to know and understand that they are no different than we are, except in the respect that they have experienced more in life. What they have learned, they as teachers in turn are offering to us.

Senior Class Officers were: Janet Sebert, Pres.; Nancy Ulm, Vice Pres.; Cindy Akey, Sec.; and Mark Strong, Treasurer.

Industrious and creative Seniors spent late hours on their prize winning Homecoming float. Their hearty efforts were rewarded the first-place trophy.

Five Seniors participated in a panel which posed the questions of fellow classmates to Congressman E. Ross Adair.

Lasting Memories

Seniors Bill Wellendorf and Skip Campbell returned from a trip to be welcomed back by a locker filled with newspapers. Needless to say the well-meaning classmates had to keep a lock on their own lockers for a few days.

Skip adds a creative touch to Bill's attire.

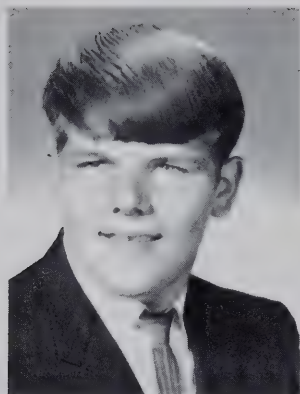

The Class of 1968 spent its last fun-filled day at Pokagon State Park. Highlights were ball games, riding horses and bikes, hikes, and finally food!

Mr. Wilder models his I.D. bracelet and Mrs. Scheuring her charm bracelet, received as gifts from their Seniors.

The Beginning of the End

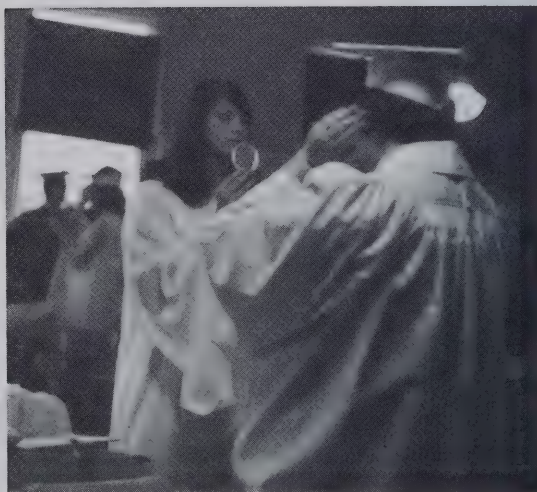

Seniors hold one last class meeting to determine for what purposes remaining class funds will be designated. Carrying unanimously the Project Committee's proposals, the class donated money for the purchase of flags and mirrors for the school, with the remaining funds allotted to the 1968 Easterner.

An unexpected gift.

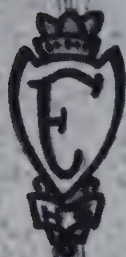

Seniors prepare to don their gowns.

Lending a helping hand to a friend.

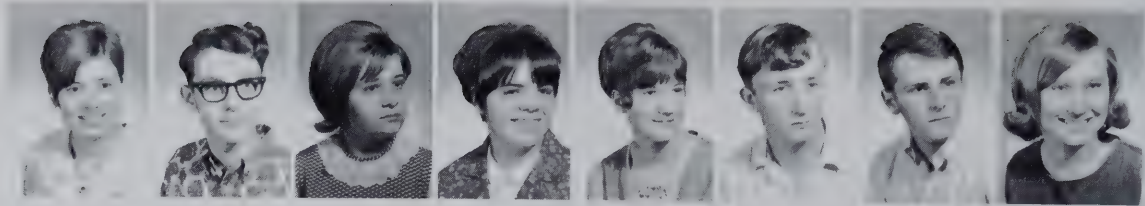

Friends discuss graduation party plans.

Underclassmen Candids

Underclassmen support the banner through which the Blazers will momentarily leap.

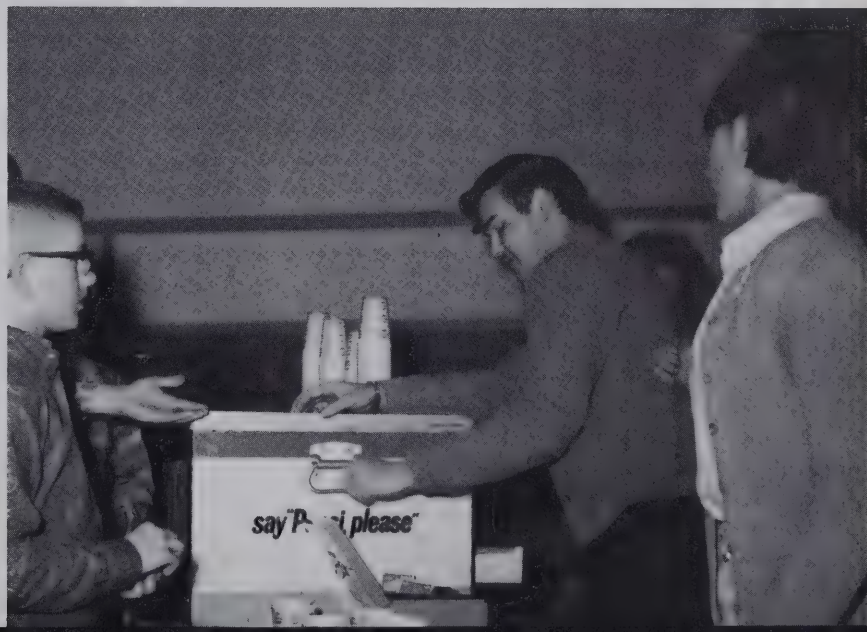

Sophomores Steve Kelley, Doug Upp, and Dennis Jones ride on their class float which won second prize.

Tony Hopkins and Donna Church operate the lucrative Junior Concession stand.

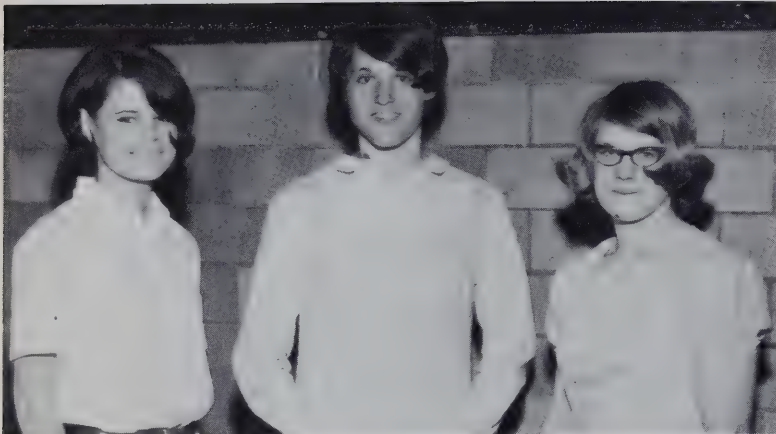

Underclass Officers

Juniors far exceeded existing school records in magazine sales with the distinction of ranking as one of the top in the nation. Juniors joined other classes in adopting class jackets.

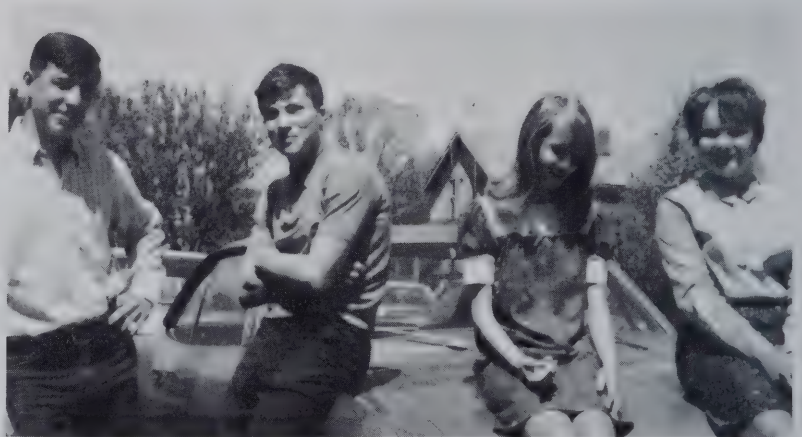

L to R: Jim Ridge, V. Pres.; Ted Miller, Pres.; Darla Vachon, Sec.; Lerene Laux, Treas.

Winning the Sectional sign contest, the Sophomores worked hard to promote school spirit. Their efforts were rewarded twice this year with the possession of the Spirit Stick. Sophs chose blue and white as their colors and adopted class jackets bearing them.

The Freshmen made it highly evident during class yell contests at pep sessions that they could outyell the other classes. President Hal Hansen demonstrated his pie-throwing ability twice this year as a result.

The goal of this year's staff was to give the 1968 Easterner a new look. The book was enlarged to 136 pages, new layout methods devised, and a new look for the faculty section. All of this was done in hopes that this would be one of the more outstanding annuals.

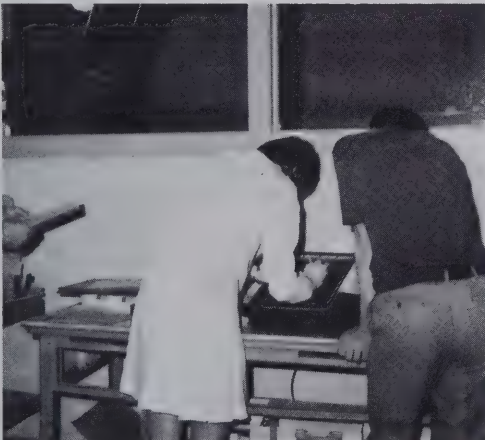

Perhaps the greatest asset to this year's staff was a certain Yashica Mat-Em Camera which went anywhere and everywhere capturing the action portrayed in this annual. From previous experience it was soon learned that good annual pictures require the proper camera. And the Yashica has more than satisfied the requirements!

The 1968 Easterner Staff hopes that this annual will bring years of outlasting enjoyment.

Blazer Staff

The 1968 Blazer under the leadership of John Bowers initiated its new sponsor Mr. Clifford Parker. Highlights of this year's paper were the thought-provoking editorials and the "Sports Lockerroom." The popular student interviews also continued as a major feature of the Blazer.

Pres. Skip Campbell decorates the school Christmas Tree.

The 1968 Student Council, under the leadership of President Skip Campbell and with the cooperation of its twenty-six members, did much to unite the Student Body through the stimulation of school spirit. With the complete support of Mr. Robert Wilder, the Council sponsored the first annual Homecoming Talent Show, the first Pride in Eastside Week, and the first Spring Festival. Only on the basis of united school organizations and students were they carried to success.

The Eastside Choir attempted with great success to nurture an excellent performance of "The Sound of Music." It can easily be judged by the number of people in the choir, that Eastside is blessed with many fine vocalists. A trio consisting of Reva Armstrong, Sheila Reinoehl, and Cheryl Hose went to State contest faring quite high in their rating. Capping the year's activities was the Panorama featuring songs from famous musicals.

Students speak a half hour each day of one week on the subject of their choice. Eastside receives charge of the program each third week. Such an opportunity provides a student with the chance to express his opinions constructively.

The Future Teachers of America learned much about the vast and versatile teaching profession during two meetings at which the Principals of the Dekalb Eastern Community School District and Superintendent Cole were the guest speakers. F.T.A. Seniors are enrolled in the Exploratory Teaching program which acquaints them with their chosen profession.

The Eastside chapter received a certificate of honor at the F.T.A. State Convention for sponsoring a new chapter.

This year saw an innovation in the addition of new organizations at Eastside. Les Adventuriers, the French Club, was chartered by the Student Council early in the school year under the sponsorship of Mr. Sherer. Among the activities engaged was a bake sale. The French Club also had the distinction of winning the Spirit Stick for their activities during "Pride in Eastside Week."

The Future Homemakers of America again participated this year in many money-making projects including a rummage sale and a bake sale. The highlight of the year was the Valentine Dance at which Nancy Hankey and Mike Storer were crowned the F.H.A.-F.F.A. King and Queen. Among other activities were the District F.H.A. meeting and the F.H.A. Spring Banquet.

Science Club

The Science Club which is composed of members of the Junior and Senior classes, seeks to explore the world of science through research other than that employed in the classroom. This year's Science Club cooperated in the building of a rocket which had to be cleared through a federal agency. The rocket was launched in early May.

Science Club members participated in the Spring Festival with a "Test your Strength" booth.

The Girls' Athletic Association was one of the innovators at E.H.S. this year. With the continuation of Girls' Track, now in its second year, Girl's Volleyball was introduced. These sports were played in competition with teams from surrounding area schools and the opponents received very stiff competition from Eastside's highly challenging teams. The success in the continuation of girls' athletics would not have been possible without the cooperation and leadership of Mrs. Maida Parshall, the sponsor.

Sectional Highlights

The thrills of the Sectional always spark a fever in the E.H.S. student body. Despite a loss to Garrett, the Blazers fought one of their best games and for Seniors Herb Holden, Skip Campbell, and Gene Flueckiger the memories will linger long. Here: the tip-off.

Tom Seltentright aims for two more points.

The Girls' Track Team is in its second year at Eastside. Coaching was Mrs. Maida Parshall, who also sponsored the formation of a Girls' Volleyball Team. Two girls, Janelle Moore and Nila Willibey qualified for competition in the Girls' State Track Meet. It is apparent that we have some very able girl athletes at Eastside and it is hoped that their athletic program will grow and expand with that of the boys.

Much credit can be given to Mrs. Parshall in the initiation of girls' athletics at Eastside. Her interest in the physical fitness of high school students is profound.

March - May

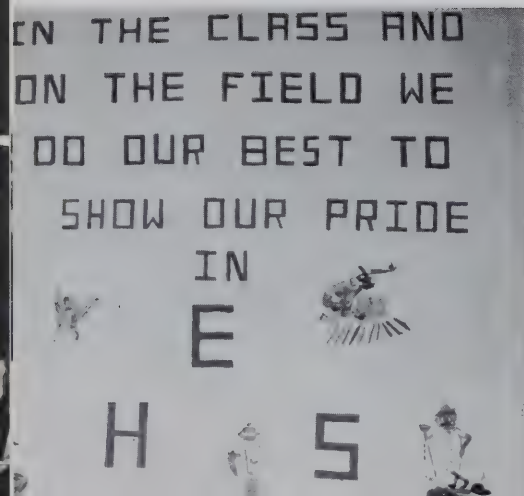

Pride in

The band's sign took first-place honors in the sign contest.

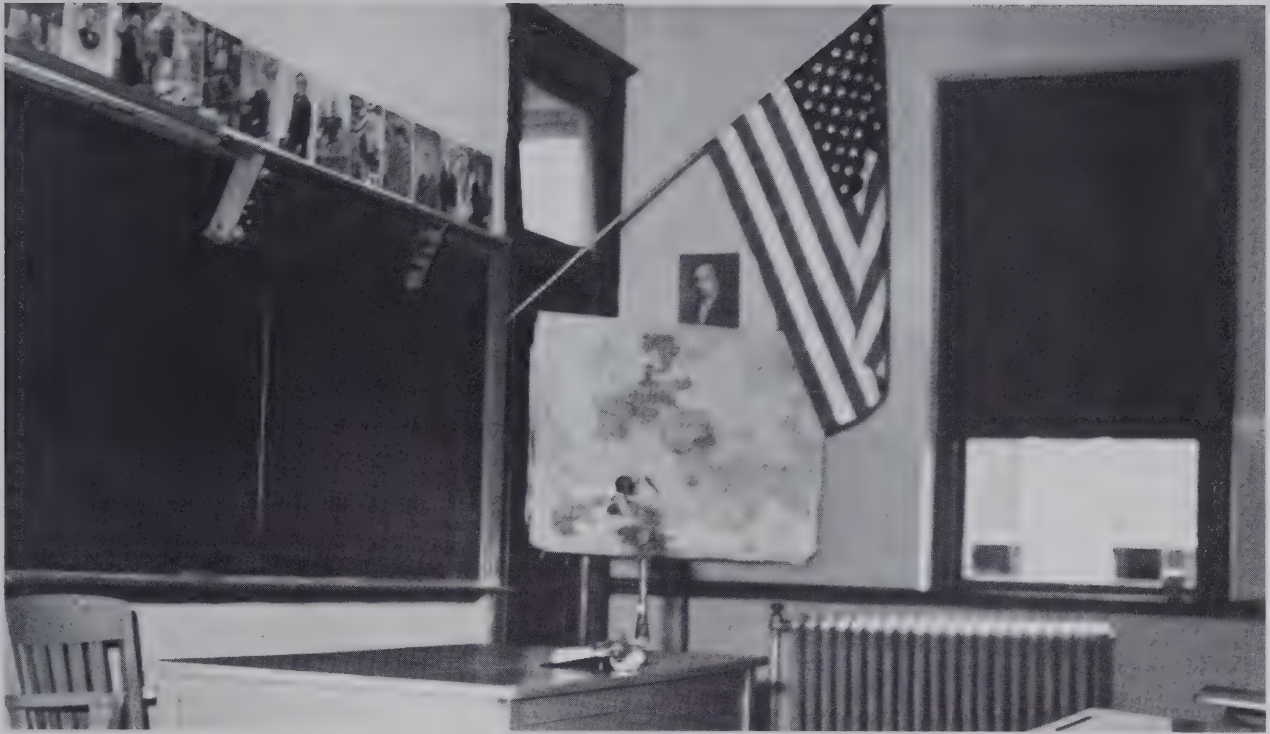

By a special proclamation, Student Council President Skip Campbell declared March 4-8, 1968, to be Pride in Eastside Week. Clubs and classes were assigned rooms to clean, essays were written, and signs made. Eastside sparkled from top to bottom as its seams burst with pride. All categories were judged and prizes given to the winners at a special convo. To climax this most historic week, Eastsiders participated in a Goose Chase sponsored by the Youth for Christ in Auburn. The students' pride was at its most glorious height as they took all the bows for the event, capturing both geese! The prize for the evening's festivities was a huge trophy. Students learned that by taking pride in what you have and not what you do not have that any atmosphere can be brightened. If this be the case, then long live Pride in Eastside!

And so we all learned, that Pride does make school fun.

Members of the Lettermen's Club and our school athletes can teach us a lesson in school pride. For by representing Eastside in athletic competition against other schools, they are demonstrating pride!

“The Night of

Juniors drained the streams of creativity as they undertook to present the Seniors with "The Night of Forget-Me-Not." Within the hallowed interiors of Fort Wayne's Cutter's Chalet, guests were impressed by the tasteful decorations which provided a night-club-like atmosphere. Completing the memorable setting were the soothing strains of the Blue Impressions, highlighted by the professional entertainment of comedian Mike Caldwell. Crowned as Prom King and Prom Queen were Jim Ridge and Cindy Staley.

Senior President Janet Sebert offers the thanks and compliments of her classmates to the Juniors.

Tom Seltenright presents Junior Sponsor Mr. Hubert Stackhouse with a plaque for his enthusiastic interest and initiative in helping the class to realize their full potential.

The meal over, juniors prepare for the onslaught of an eventful evening. One that they will not soon forget and one into which they have all invested much time and effort to make possible.

Forget-Me-Not"

Prom Queen Cindy Staley and her escort Gary Baird dance to the mood set by the music of the Blue Impressions.

When one thinks of a prom, dancing might automatically come into mind.

But, perhaps the greatest pleasure is derived from just talking and having a good time.

The Night of "Forget-Me-Not" climaxes with a sock hop and a breakfast. As the guests depart for home, they realize that a night into which much preparation has been invested has come and gone, and only memories linger on.

The Diploma--symbol of twelve years of knowledge, uncountable memories, and a storehouse of experience.

Dear Eastside,

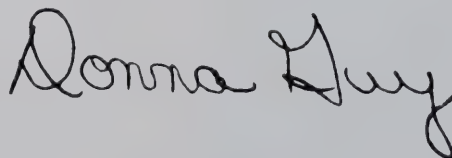

This is a letter for posterity. Speaking for the 1968 Easterner, I will say an unexpressible thanks to all the people who made this annual possible: The students who are Eastside, for it is to them that this book is dedicated; Principal Myers for his intense interest and seeing that we had a proper camera with which to capture the action; to the faculty for their cooperation and patience; to Mr. Sherer, our advisor; To the patrons for their financial support; to Shawn Campbell, for her diligent work in obtaining financial support and controlling expenses; to Nancy Ulm for designing the cover and division pages; and to my staff who worked hard in obtaining supporting funds.

The Easterner of 1968 is different in many respects and perhaps that can be attributed to the fact that the characters portrayed between its covers are changing and growing individuals. This is the first realization that struck me upon graduation as I joined the people who are no longer a part of the continuing Eastside, but the Eastside of the past. Graduation is a beginning of a future and the climax of a past. Remembering the past, one is certain to touch many soft spots. But we who graduate must go forward into the future taking with us the knowledge and the experience that has been gained in the midst of these hallowed halls.

Eastside changes every year, because its inhabitants change. One can not regret returning to Eastside after he graduates, for it will not be the Eastside that he knew. It is only when you walk through an empty school that bears the name of Eastside, amidst its deafening silence, that you realize that people make Eastside, not a building. Do not blame the building for the inconveniences, for this building has housed many wonderful memories, with a resounding echo. It is where you learned how to face life; it is where you experienced life.

I hope that you will treasure this book for many years to come, no one can fully realize all the work and effort which has gone into its creation. But most important: remember to be proud that you are Eastside, for you create the life within the building which bears the name.

Sincerely,

what next?

After high school, what: travel, work, service, college or technical school?

Regardless of your choice, how far you go in this space age depends partly on your imagination but primarily on your education and training. Conquering new horizons will demand more knowledge, more skills, more training and more specialization.

Our free-enterprise system, the backbone of our country, has given us the highest standard of living in the world and the greatest degree of individual freedom. And it offers you the opportunity to make your mark in any field of endeavor you choose.
